

Rally will Hear Plea To End Cuba Blockade

"LIFT the Blockade of Cuba!" "Food Aid to the Disaster Victims" - these urgent appeals will be made at the Scott Nearing meeting marking the 30th anniversary of the veteran fighter for peace, civil rights and socialism. This announcement was released by Jessica Smith, chairman of the Birthday Committee. The meeting will be held Nov. 7 at Palm Gardens, 52nd St. and 8th Ave.

Scott Nearing will speak at the meeting on the significance of socialist Cuba and the CIA efforts against it.

In his recent pamphlet, "Cuba and Latin America," Nearing declared that "the time is ripe for a new orientation" toward Cuba and the Latin American people.

Other speakers will be James Aronson, editor of National Guardian; Leo Huberman, editor of Monthly Review; Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, Communist spokesman; A. J. Muste, socialist and peace fighter; Willard Uphaus, of World Fellowship; Richard B. Moore, Negro freedom fighter and Alva Buxbaum of the Progressive Youth Organizing Committee. Jessica Smith will preside.

Malvina Reynolds will entertain with folk songs.
